

the year 1979

POPE JOHN XXIII

For these four years gone by,
Happiness and Sadness
Will live in our memories.
Friends - we've shared a life with
Have come to be a part of us.
Experiences have changed us.
We're no longer the same,
Nor ever will be again;
And so we're dedicating this book
To us - The Changers and
The Changed.

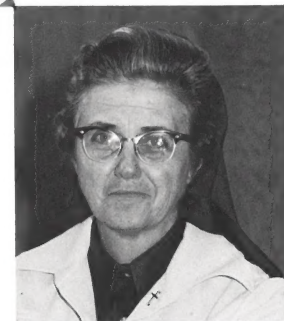

FACULTY

SISTER ANNATA joined us in September of 1978. In her soft spoken way we realized her powerful presence. Since it is our last year here, we regret that we will not get the chance to be with her longer.

SISTER THERESE came to us when we became upperclassmen in 1977. Her stay was brief but her impression was lasting.

SISTER URSULA. Knowing Sister for our first two years as underclassmen, we were given the correct discipline to help us through our last two years.

SISTER COR MARIE. Leading us in as Freshmen, we shared four full years together. Now leading us out as seniors, we thank-you for being with us.

CANDIDS

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF . . .

There was no such thing as late bus passes
 There were no license plates on the cars blocking the dumpster
 The boys had to wear skirts and blazers
 The students had a meeting at 1:10 and the teachers were dismissed
 Sr. Cor Marie was late for school
 The seniors came in first in all the drives
 There was a fifth floor swimming pool
 There was no early dismissal for seniors with last period studies
 The freshmen sat at the senior lunch tables
 The caf didn't sell brownies on Friday
 Mr. Cucchiara didn't take any pictures
 We could all wear what we wanted everyday for free
 All the clocks in the building worked
TIME STOOD STILL AND WE HAD THE CHANCE TO DO IT ALL OVER AGAIN

Which

It's finally over!

BULLETIN!!

Bulletin . . . Bulletin . . . Bulletin . . . Bulletin . . . Bulletin . . . Bulletin . . .

"FROM THE POLITICAL DESK"

History was made at Camp David when Begin of Israel, Sadat of Egypt, and President Carter discussed and tried to effect peace in the Middle East . . . Edward Brooke, the only American black senator, was deposed by Paul Tsongas and Ed King became our governor . . . the Equal Rights Amendment STILL wasn't ratified; but Proposition 13, the tax revolt won big . . . Polish jokes became a venial sin with the election of Pope John Paul II whose tenure was brought about by the shocking death of Pope John Paul I, who reigned only 36 days.

"SPORTS WRAP-UP"

Tiant left for the World Champ Yankees after the Red Sox blew the penant . . . Dave Cowens was named player-coach of the sinking Celtics . . . Bobby Orr's knees forced his retirement in hockey . . . In tennis, Renee Richards played mixed-doubles with herself . . . the Atlantic was finally conquered by 3 balloonists in the "Double Eagle II."

"ON OUR WEATHER MAP"

We were buried by The Great Blizzard of '78 . . . no milk, no bread . . . no school!!!

"IN THE ENTERTAINMENT WORLD"

Science Fiction invaded the small screen with the arrival of Battlestar Galactica (TV's answer to Star Wars), Mork arrived from Ork (na-noo-na-noo), Star Trek returned (As a full-length film), and Chester was revealed as the murderer of Peter Campbell, as he SOAPed himself in the shower. Taxi was a new hit and Saturday Night Live continued in its "wild and crazy" style.

On the "silver screen" Animal House taught us all about Toga Parties, "The Wiz" eased on down the road, Grease slid into our hearts and Sgt. Pepper spiced up our lives. Magic did a hocus-pocus on our minds and in phonebooths all around the world, Superman reappeared.

"FASHION NOTES"

If you weren't wearing ankle socks, strapped "Mary Janes" and unisex skinny ties, you weren't in fashion in 1978. Your hair was crimped, frizzed, permed or the disco-cut . . . which leads you to music, which was strictly disco; from Donna Summer's new version of 1968's MacArthur Park to Chic's "La Freak."

"PEOPLE"

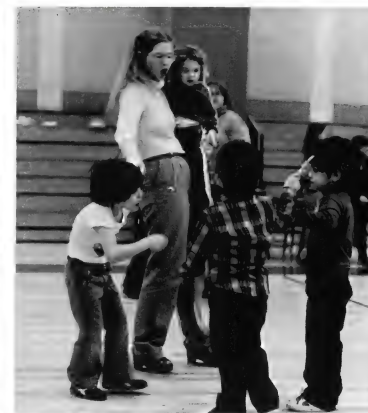

If you didn't either laugh, swoon or cheer over John Travolta, Cheryl Teigs, Bill Rogers, Gilda Radner, or John Belushi, you were a space shot.

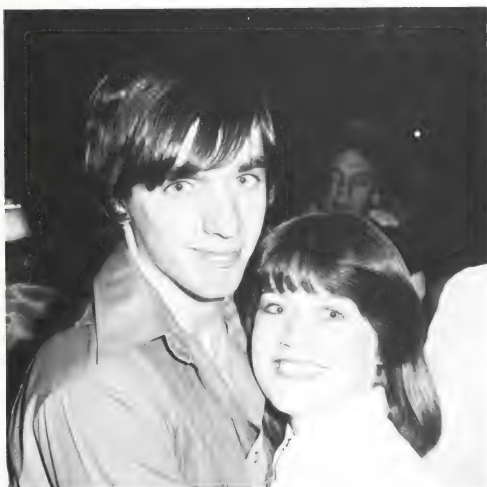

"ON THE LOCAL SCENE"

Prom Committee meetings closely resembled the Ali-Spinks fights, activity cards encouraged greater attendance at sporting events, S. Annata became our third principal in four years, The great Fire Alarm Caper pre-empted our regularly scheduled program, no Seniors sold any candy, Happy Days were revived at the 50's Dance, the Christmas Semi-formal was a blizzard of festivity, and flying saucers were spotted in the caf

THE DATING GAME

The two of us late for class? Never!

We propose a change in the dress code for next year.

It sure is getting harder to copy homework!

How can you eat that stuff? I can't even look at it.

Caught again.

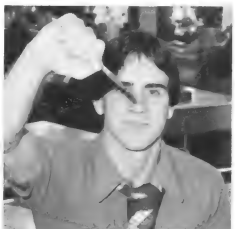

Forget Trig, look at the camera!

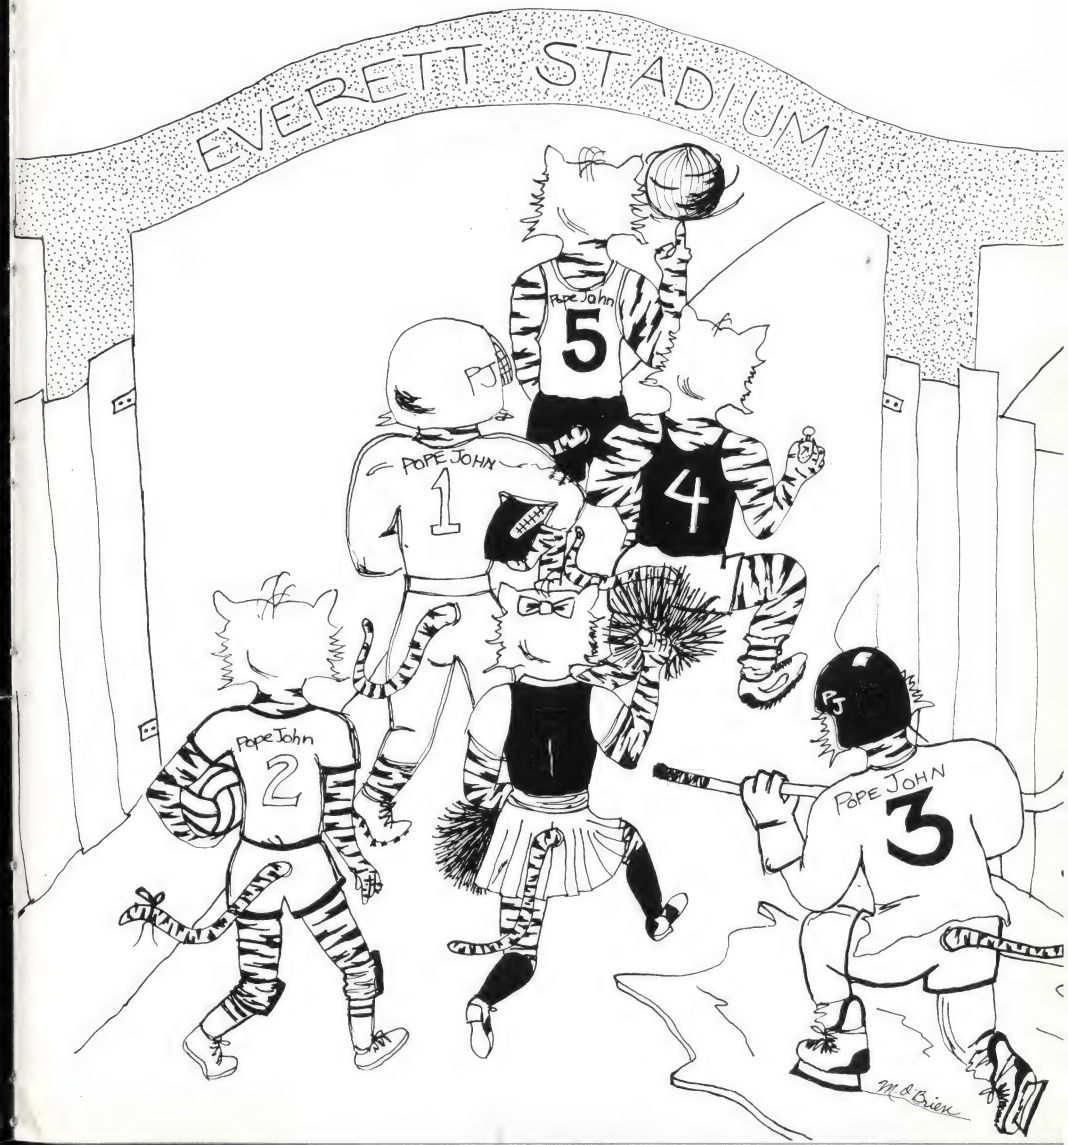

Need any more players for next year Mr. Des-Loges?

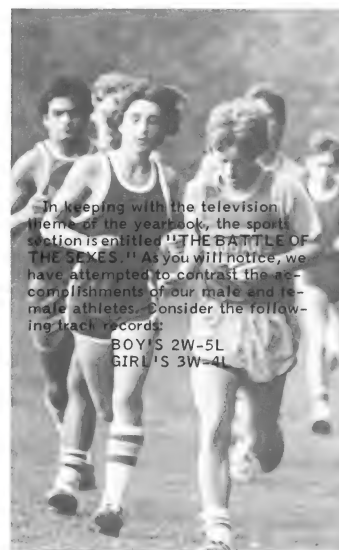

Some of these people are not Cuticchians, who are they?

SPORTS

In keeping with the television theme of the yearbook, the sport section is entitled "THE BATTLE OF THE SEXES." As you will notice, we have attempted to contrast the accomplishments of our male and female athletes. Consider the following track records:

Coach Marty White knew there was a time for work but she also knew that the girls would work harder and enjoy track if they also had fun. As you can see, the girls did have fun, and they finished with one of their best overall records ever!

Front, L to R: D. Noyes, A. Pompeo, Sophomore, N. Dillion, L. Diberto, P. Riley, M. Syrachan, J. Cecere, C. Kanariwicz, 2nd: K. O'Bremski, J. Allen, L. Carrabas, C. McGlynn, Joy, N. Ryan, P. Connolly, P. Abrams.

Marty's Philosophy of having fun while you work wasn't proved wrong by the girls records of 4W- 2T- 1L. She took over and turned a history of losing seasons into a sensationally successful season. Five teammates who have been together on track for most or all of their four years and whose accomplishments will be long remembered are Carol Kanarkiewicz, Marie Anzalono, Eileen McAdam, Doreen Noyes, and Diane DelloRusso.

Baseball is not an individualistic sport. It's main element is TEAMWORK.

A player can't be expected to tag out an opposing player running to a base unless his teammates cooperate in getting the ball directly to him as quickly as possible. Teamwork's results are rewarding, especially when that runner is tagged out, that run is scored, and the game is won.

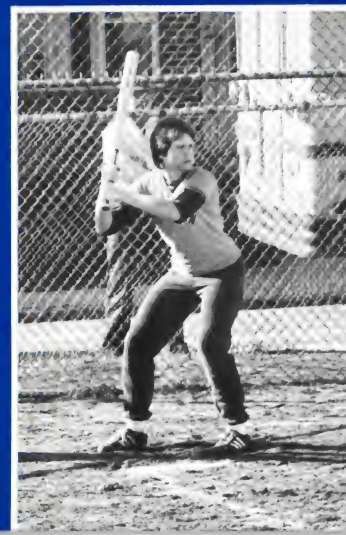

Winning isn't everything. A game lost by one or two runs to one of the league's top teams but played with heart and soul is much more rewarding than defeating an inferior team with ease. That's how Pope John's team felt and for their record of 6-14 they tried hard but their determination just wasn't enough to win them a successful season. They've lost six hard working ball players who'll certainly be missed: Tom DeBlasio, Rich Brown, Matt Snook, Jim Kelly, Tom Parisi, and Keith Donnelly.

POPE JOHN
PROM
IN BALLROOM

May 22, 1979. A night to remember for all athletes, but in a very special way, this was Sharon Dawley's night. Her number 5 was retired, and a "Sharon Dawley Award" for outstanding athletic leadership was dedicated to this unusual, talented senior. God bless!

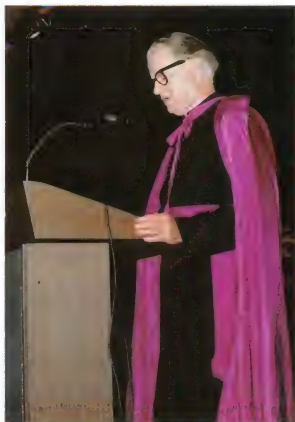

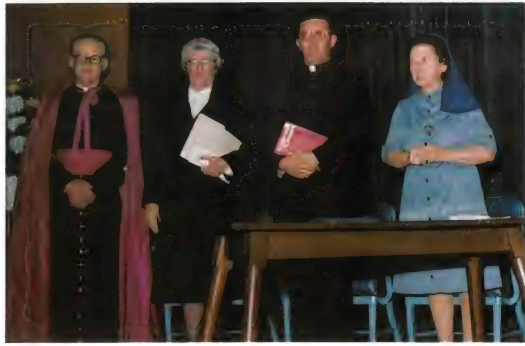

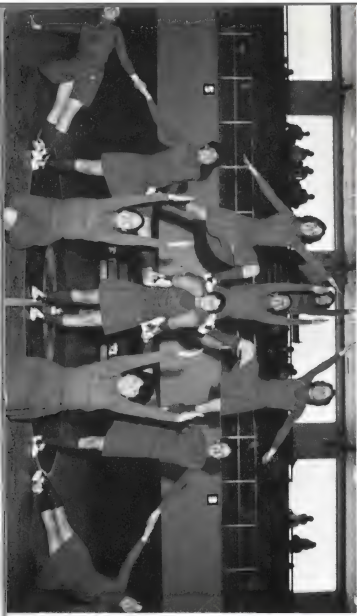

More of our athletic contributors were honored that evening - George Biagiotti, Jim Kelly, Carol Kanarkiewicz, John Doyle, Mike Passanisi, Coach Perkins and our No. 1 fan, Sister Annata . . . to name only a few who made sports fun in 1979.

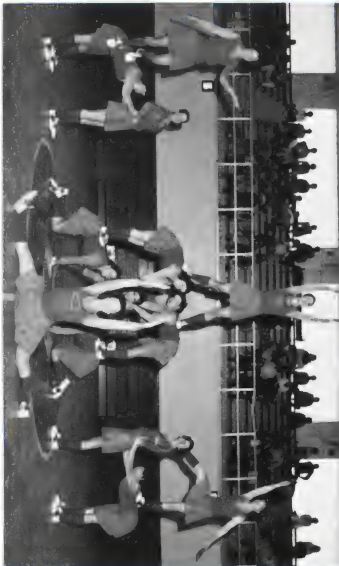

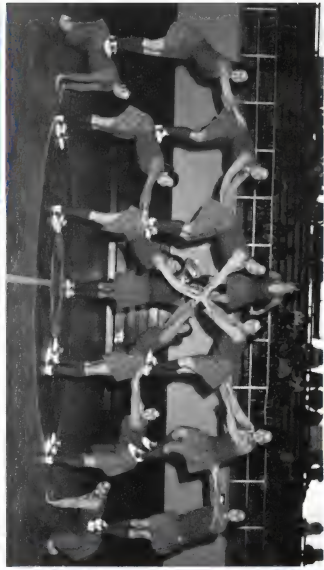

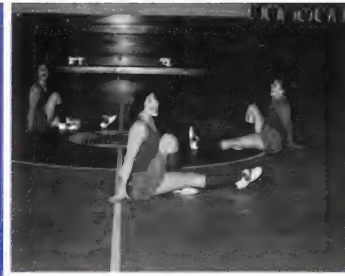

"The Tiger Team is on The Beam!"

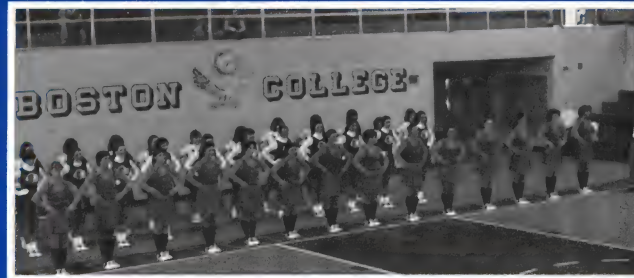

"Our Team is High Above the Rest!"

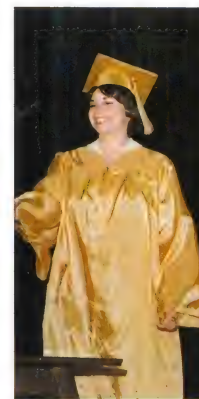

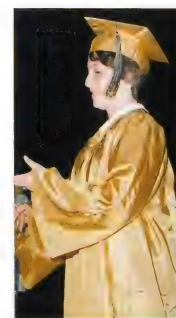

"This is the Start of Something Big!"

On March 18, 1979, both Senior and Junior cheer-leading squads entered the C.Y.O. Cheering Competition at Boston College. After many hard, long hours of practice, using every minute of spare gym time, aches, pains and tears, both squads emerged as champions. Each bringing back to Pope John a trophy which symbolized a great triumph for each squad. THANKS Sister Jean!!

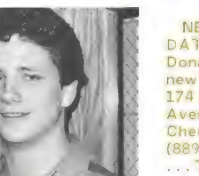

GODSPELL

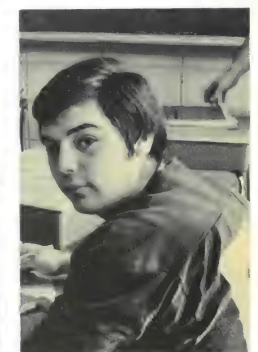

Godspell was a joy. Thank you Joe, Debbie, Maureen, Bob, Mary (and Anna!) for your work and talent. What a show! P.S. The whole cast was wonderful.

NEWS UPDATE: John Donarumo's new address is 174 Franklin Avenue, Chelsea, Ma. (889-3239) ... Tony Genzale was also in the Drama Club and Library Council (sorry for the oversight!) ... Mr. VanCisin is the new assistant coach at Babson College, (Chere's still here too!) and the halls aren't the same without you!

This editorial revolves around so many happy memories . . . Mike's comments, Tricia's picas, and everybody's cheese popcorn! John's captions and Nancy's laughter, Bob's "menages", Debbie's dedication, Janet's and Robyn's driving, Diane's nicotine fits, Tony's trip to Albany, Donna's secret knowledge of what ALL of those initials meant, Mary's artwork, and Kenny's "Where's the Cropper?", Maureen's smug knowledge of the TRUTH about our across-the-gym neighbor . . . Wasn't it fun? But wasn't it hard? And wasn't it worth it? And won't I miss you?? P.S. Thanks to P.J. Photographics for the baseball photo, to Purdy's, to Maddy Webster for the faculty pix, and to Tim Garvey.

"Functions in Disaster, Finish with Style"

A short year ago, fourteen people gathered in a small office overlooking the gym. These people were full of different ideas and had various hidden talents. Meeting every Thursday afternoon, trying to agree on what our yearbook would consist of wasn't the easiest task. At times things got pretty hectic, but there was one special lady who was always there to help and support everyone. Mrs. Nancy Whalen is this special lady.

She was full of new and different ideas which helped in the yearbook's success. When times got rough, especially when deadlines had to be met, she was there putting things together.

There are so many words to say about this wonderful lady who devoted herself to the success of our yearbook. The most important word is Thank-You. Thank-you Mrs. Whalen for sharing yourself with fourteen people. thank-you for giving your time and perseverance into making our yearbook.

We functioned in disaster but finished in style-

Your Style.
You are a wonderful friend. Thank-you again for all your help and generosity.
